

PRIVACY NOTICE & CONSENT FORM: CHURCH FAMILY

Provided under the GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION (GDPR), in force from 25th May 2018, and current UK law on data protection applying.

Lawful Basis

As part of the work of the church we need to process personal data. We undertake to gather and process this data on the lawful basis of consent, Article 6(1)(a), and under condition 9(2)d of the legislation, in terms of which we process in the course of legitimate activities with appropriate safeguards as a church.

Whose information do we hold and why?

Processing is in relation to members, former members and those having regular contact, in connection with the pursuit of our purposes as a church. Personal data is not disclosed outside the church processes, without the consent of the data subjects (i.e. those to whom the data belongs).

How long will we keep this information and what are your rights concerning it?

We will keep your data for the period of your involvement with the church. It may also be archived as part of our historical record of membership of the church. You have the right to request access to your personal data held by us, to change and update those details. You can also withdraw consent for us to hold your data at any time and we will immediately take action to delete/destroy it. Your provision of this data is not part of a statutory requirement or obligation.
